

Episode 96: New from Sierra Nevada

Hey - we're back! This episode, we're revisiting a well known brewery, Sierra Nevada, and trying their new offerings. Over the past couple months, Sierra Nevada has released two of this year's seasonals, plus a brand new year-round beer. As it's rare that Sierra Nevada releases a new year-round offering, we think it's a pretty big deal. Plus, it's just the style that we think they needed to release years ago - IPA. Tune in to this episode to see what this powerhouse brewery has that's new!
